

★ Star break: MUSTIQUE ★

KATE MOSS enjoyed a luxury break on Mustique last week when boyfriend Jamie Hince reportedly flew out to propose.

The couple shared a romantic getaway on the idyllic private island that forms part of St Vincent and the Grenadines in the Caribbean.

Its most famous resident was Princess Margaret, who helped put the island at the top of the exclusive hideaway hot list. Such A-listers as Sir Mick Jagger, Tommy Hilfiger and David Bowie are longtime fans. Most celebs opt for renting one of the impressive villas.

There is only one hotel, the Cotton House, with fairytale white rooms set around lawns rolling down to its pristine beach.

If you're feeling energetic, drop into the Equestrian Centre for a ride through the surf and along white sands, or there's excellent diving among unspoiled coral reefs. If golf is your thing, take a 45-minute boat ride to Canouan Island and sample the 18-hole Trump International course.

Indulge yourself with a signature treatment at the Cotton House's spa: lime and pineapple body scrub and wrap.

Then head to Basil's Bar to sip on a cocktail, gorge on fresh lobster and watch the sun setting while the house band gets you in the mood to groove.
